

Easy Read - Accessible Information Service

A booklet about Sunderland People First's Easy Read service.

Sunderland People First produce easy read information for a variety of customers including the NHS, Local Authorities and Universities.

Public organisations such as the NHS, the Government and Local Authorities by law need to provide people with information in a form they can understand.

We have an easy read service which changes complicated information into easy read for people with learning disabilities and/or autistic people.

We have converted letters, reports, booklets, posters and leaflets into easy read versions.

We also have an easy read design service where we can create a bespoke design custom made for your company. This booklet is an example of that.

Sunderland People First have a reputation for providing good quality easy read information.

People with learning disabilities are best placed to advise on how easy a document is to understand.

It is for that reason that we involve our advocates in each stage of changing a document into an easy read version.

We work with customers of our easy read service to make sure the messages they wish to put across are clear.

Sunderland People First are very proud of their work in providing this service.
